Dear Community,

For over 80 years, JCRB|AJC has worked to combat antisemitism, racism, and bigotry, and to build bridges of understanding across our region.

Each year, we gather to honor a leader in our region whose values reflect those of Henry W. Bloch, of blessed memory — someone who leads with vision, humility, and a deep commitment to others.

This fall, we are proud to present the 2025 Henry W. Bloch Human Relations Award to Dr. Doug Girod, chancellor of the University of Kansas. A physician, veteran, and visionary leader, Doug exemplifies the quiet strength and service-driven leadership that defined Henry Bloch while reimagining what's possible across education, healthcare, and civic life. His decades of impact — both locally and globally — have shaped vital institutions across the region, improved countless lives, and helped ensure Kansas City is a place where all can thrive for generations to come, l'dor vador.

Please join us on Sunday, November 23, 2025, at the Sheraton Crown Center to honor Dr. Girod and celebrate his extraordinary legacy. We are deeply grateful to our event chairs — Dr. DeAngela Burns-Wallace; Howard Cohen; Marc B. Hahn, DO; Leigh & Tyler Nottberg; Bob Page; and Alejandro Quiroga, MD, MBA — for their leadership and support.

We invite you to celebrate Doug and support JCRB|AJC's mission by joining us as a sponsor. Sponsorship opportunities and additional event details are enclosed.

As we mark 81 years of community building, we cannot imagine a more fitting tribute than to honor a leader whose work so fully reflects our values and our shared hope for a more compassionate and united future.

We hope you will join us.

With deep appreciation,

Neta Meltzer
